

We are an open, affirming, and inclusive place of worship and community where all are welcomed with genuine hospitality. A place where diversity is celebrated and the broken and wounded are embraced.

