

Pastor Call - Korean Presbyterian Church, Columbus, GA

Korean Presbyterian Church of Columbus is located in Columbus, Georgia, and is a multicultural church in the military area (Fort Moor, formerly Fort Benning) belonging to the PC (USA) denomination, which was founded 50 years ago. The senior pastor, who served joyfully in missionary work, retired after 18 years of ministry (May 26).), we respectfully invite the successor senior pastor as follows.

Qualifications

- * Anyone with experience or mission in bilingual and multicultural churches in military bases
- * Those who belong to or can join the PC (USA) Presbyterian Church in the United States
- * Those who have received an M. Div or higher degree from a regular theological school
- * Those with more than 5 years of pastoral experience
- * Those who can communicate in Korean and English
- * Those residing in the United States with legal status (permanent resident, citizen)

Documents to be submitted

- * Resume
- * Final education certificate and pastor ordination certificate
- * 2 letters of recommendation (include the recommender's name and contact information)
- * Self-introduction based on pastoral vision and confession of faith
- * 2 Korean sermon videos and 1 English sermon video within the last 6 months

Benefits

*Salary based on denominational standards

*Provision of the church pension and government pension (S.S.I.), medical insurance, and vehicle.

*4 weeks of vacation and 2 weeks of continuing education provided.

Submit information to: sunflowers9899@gmail.com

Inquiries: via email only.

Korean Presbyterian Church of Columbus Pastor Nominating Committee

5748 Whitesville Rd. Columbus GA 31904 U.S.A.